JULY EDITORS' PICKS 2020

KAMALA KIRK · JULY 8, 2020

One of our favorite things every month is going through all of the interesting beauty and wellness pitches we receive, then selecting the most fun and innovative products to feature in our monthly Editors' Picks. For the month of July, some of the highlights included:

- CBD dental care
- A fragrance designed to help you reset during times of high stress
- Forest bathing in a bottle
- Curated vegan wines in sustainable, artist-designed packaging
- Nail strips that have the base coat, color, and top coat built in
- Bubble bath that removes self-tanner
- A smart water bottle that sends you text messages and glows to remind you to drink water
- The latest launches from Acaderma, Bare Minerals, Goldfaden MD, Naturopathica, R+Co, and many more...

Read on to discover and shop Spa & Beauty Today's July Editors' Picks. Let us know if you have any favorites and if there are any products we missed that you think should make the list!

timeblock Aromatic Ultrasonic Diffuser ($99)

These cute pineapple-shaped diffusers feature ultrasonic technology that breaks any mixture of essential oils (or parfum oils) and water into millions of microparticles, disperses them into the air, and activates the powerful plant constituents. A great way to infuse essential oils and gives you a spa-like experience. It also purifies, humidifies, and refreshes the air. Available in gold, silver, and white.
